

Of Counsel
New York Office
AV rated

Practice Areas

Construction Litigation
Coverage Litigation
Premises Liability
Municipal Liability
Motor Vehicle Litigation
Medical Malpractice
Professional Liability
Aviation Law

Education

B.A., State University of New York at Binghamton, 1989

J.D., Syracuse University College of Law, 1992

Journal of International Law and Commerce
Associate Editor, 1991-1992

New York

(212) 599-5799 Phone
(212) 599-5162 Fax
jnew@rutherfordchristie.com

Jon E. Newman

Trial and Appellate practice focusing on Labor Law and construction injury litigation, insurance coverage disputes, general liability including premises liability, security, and civil rights claims, professional liability, motor vehicle accidents and aviation law. Serves as trial counsel for major nationwide corporations and insurance companies, both primary and excess.

Representative Experience:

- Defends municipalities, owners, general contractors, construction managers and subcontractors in complex construction and New York State Labor Law injury litigation, coverage disputes and at trial.
- Serves as Counsel for a national broadcasting and entertainment corporation handling personal injury claims brought against it.
- Extensive trial experience in complex premises liability defense litigation and in representing municipalities and rapid transit and commuter railroad clients at trial.
- Experienced in defending doctors, hospitals, dentists, podiatrists and other health professionals in cases alleging malpractice and negligence.
- Appellate experience in New York State Court.
- Achieved the title of Tort Trial Specialist at the New York City Corporation Counsel's Office, and during his career has taken more than 25 verdicts.

Bar Admissions:

- New York, 1993
- Southern District of New York, 1993
- Eastern District of New York, 1993

Publications and Speeches:

- Mr. Newman has presented trial practice seminars and lectures for the New York City Corporation Counsel's Trial Training program, and in 2007 and 2008, Mr. Newman was asked by the New York City Transit Authority to present his Labor Law Update seminar to the New York City Transit Authority's in-house attorneys. He has also conducted a number of client seminars and in-house seminars covering issues including Labor Law and construction litigation, coverage, trial practice, discovery, depositions, and legal/medical issues.