

Partner
New York Office

Practice Areas
Premises Liability
Education Law
Employment Law
Constitutional Law

Education
B.A., cum laude, State
University of New York at Albany, 1989

J.D., Syracuse University, 1992

Syracuse Law Review,
1990 - 1992

Technical Editor, 1991-
1992

New York
(212) 599-5799 Phone
(212) 599-5162 Fax
lrs@rutherfordchristie.com

Lewis R. Silverman

Practice focuses on constitutional law, education law, employment litigation, and premises liability. Serves as counsel for municipalities and school districts in constitutional, special education, and sexual misconduct and employment discrimination cases.

Representative Experience:

- Has extensive trial experience in New York State and Federal Courts
- Serves as counsel for school districts and municipalities in employment discrimination cases, civil rights cases, land use and zoning disputes, student discipline cases, special education cases and tuition reimbursement cases
- Served as Special Counsel for a school district in an administrator's disciplinary hearing
- Representation of indicted police officer in civil aspect of manslaughter case
- Appellate experience in Federal and New York State Courts

Bar Admissions:

- New York, 1993
- Southern District of New York, 1993
- Eastern District of New York, 1993
- Northern District of New York, 1996

Community Service:

- Autism Speaks

Publications and Speeches:

- Author, Defense Of Psychological Injury Claims In Warsaw Convention Cases, Aviation Litigation Quarterly, 2000
- Has lead seminars on New York Law topics for clients including New York State Labor Law and Employment Discrimination